Current Living Conditions:

Three years ago the Sanchez Ramon family moved to Ensenada from Veracruz in search of a better life and higher paying jobs. When they first arrived in Ensenada they were renting but five months ago they were able to purchase land on credit. Jeremias built a small wooden structure and they immediately moved in. Febe works at night so she can take care of her children during the day and Jeremias works during the day and watches the children in the evening. Their working situation is less than ideal but it is the only way they will be able to pay their mortgage. This family is excited to start the new year in a new home!
